

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Jean and Jeannette Helland exchanged their wedding vows on May 19, 1946, promising to share their lives and love together for the rest of their days; and,

Whereas, The newly-wed couple of 60 years ago has been replaced by two devoted partners who have shared life's beauty and sorrow, and have grown to love one another more because of their common journey; and,

Whereas, Jean and Jeannette gave life and love to four children, who in turn presented them with nine grandchildren and three great-grandchildren; and,

Whereas, Through their lifelong dedication to the values of caring and sharing, Jean and Jeannette have helped make South Dakota a great place to live and work; and,

Whereas, Family and friends will gather on May 12, 2006, to celebrate Jean and Jeannette's 60th wedding anniversary; and,

Whereas, It is altogether fitting and proper that the Governor of South Dakota recognizes and commemorates the memorable milestones in the lives of the state's outstanding citizens:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 19, 2006, as in South Dakota, and I join with the honored couple's family and friends in wishing them continued health and happiness in a state that stands prouder today because of their contributions and commitment.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this First Day of May in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Six.

M. Michael Rounds
